OUR ORGANISATION

About us

Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children is a Ministry dedicated to supporting any child in New Zealand whose wellbeing is at significant risk of harm now, or in the future. We also work with young people who may have offended, or are likely to offend. Our belief is that in the right environment, with the right people surrounding and nurturing them, any child can, and should flourish.

Our vision

Our vision is: New Zealand values the wellbeing of tamariki above all else.

Our purpose

Our purpose is: To ensure that all tamariki are in loving whānau and communities where oranga tamariki can be realised.

The Oranga Tamariki way

We're introducing a new way of doing things. A way of looking at the world that guides everything we do:

Our core outcomes

Our core outcomes are:

- All children and young people are in loving families and communities where they can be safe, strong, connected, and able to flourish.
- Improved outcomes for all children, especially tamariki and rangatahi Māori.

POSITION PURPOSE

The focus of programming work is to ensure that when a child or young person is in residence, the time is used efficiently and effectively to prepare them for a successful transition to stable living arrangement post residences.

The purpose of the role is to arrange for the provision of programmes identified in behavioural plans and interventions developed for children and young people in residences to address behavioural difficulties, increase positive behaviour, and meet therapeutic and rehabilitative needs.

The Programme Coordinator will assist the residences to:

- Develop a national programmes curriculum for residential services;
- Identify a range of suitable and relevant programmes and providers; and
- Establish the effectiveness and value for money of programmes utilised.

On their sites, the Programme Coordinator will work closely with the Employment Coordinator, Team Leaders, Case Leaders, Care Teams and other residential staff.

Externally they will work to build and maintain strong relationships and networks with external providers of programmes that can assist young people towards the desired outcomes.
