Zero Hunger Collective

We're hungry for an Aotearoa New Zealand where everyone has dignified access to enough good food

We recognise the need for a two-pronged approach to addressing hunger within our nation:

People need food now, and we need big picture solutions.

We support community food organisations across Aotearoa New Zealand to enable food to be distributed in mana enhancing ways and to strive for community led food secure communities,

AND

We are committed to the slower, deeper work of addressing poverty-related hunger's root causes – and all the systems that contribute to it.
