

Coversheet

Place-Based Initiatives – Evaluation Findings and Long Term Funding

Hon Carmel Sepuloni, Minister for Social Development

These documents have been proactively released:

Cabinet paper confirmed on 8 June 2020 - Place-Based Initiatives – Evaluation Findings and Long Term Funding

3 June 2020, Cabinet Social Wellbeing Committee Minute SWC-20-MIN-0065, Cabinet Office

8 June 2020, Cabinet Minute CAB-20-MIN-0261, Cabinet Office.

The Cabinet paper provided an overview of the independent evaluation of the Place-Based Initiatives (PBIs) and reported on their progress, and in view of the positive evaluation findings sought Cabinet agreement to:

- bring the $5 million per year PBI tagged contingency into the Ministry of Social Development baseline, and
- extend core operational funding to the two existing PBIs, South Auckland Social Wellbeing Board and Manaaki Tairāwhiti, for a further two years to 30 June 2022.

Some parts of this information release would not be appropriate to release and, if requested, would be withheld under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act). Where this is the case, the relevant sections of the Act that would apply have been identified. Where information has been withheld, no public interest has been identified that would outweigh the reasons for withholding it. The applicable redaction code used for this release is as follows:

- Out of scope – Material unrelated to the information released.

The following document relating to the Cabinet paper is already public:

- Implementation and emerging outcomes evaluation of the Place-Based Initiatives – the main report of the independent evaluation of the PBIS, which was completed in December 2019 and made public in March 2020:
<https://swa.govt.nz/publications/reports/>

© Crown Copyright, Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0)

Search Tags: Place-Based Initiatives, PBIs, South Auckland, Tairāwhiti, Collective impact, Whānau centred approaches, Regional governance