OUR ORGANISATION

About us

We are dedicated to supporting any child in New Zealand whose wellbeing is at significant risk of harm now, or in the future. We also work with young people who may have offended or are likely to offend.

Our belief is that in the right environment, with the right people surrounding and nurturing them, any child can, and should flourish.

Our vision

Our vision is: New Zealand values the wellbeing of tamariki above all else.

Our purpose

Our purpose is: To ensure that all tamariki are in loving whānau and communities where oranga tamariki can be realised.

The Oranga Tamariki way

We’re introducing a new way of doing things. A way of looking at the world that guides everything we do:

Our core outcomes

Our core outcomes are:

- All children and young people are in loving families and communities where they can be safe, strong, connected, and able to flourish

- Improved outcomes for all children, especially tamariki Māori and rangatahi.
POSITION PURPOSE

The purpose of this role is to lead communications and engagement projects internally and externally ensuring a clear flow of information and generating high quality, well informed content to enable Oranga Tamariki to achieve its mission.

Communications and Engagement will reflect Oranga Tamariki’s aims of:

- always considering children first and foremost
- enabling best practice
- growing trusted relationships
- high aspirations for all children, particularly Māori.

Above all, our Communications and Engagement work will:

- create champions
- evidence change
- strengthen relationships
- grow public confidence.
