OUR ORGANISATION

About us

Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for Children is a Ministry dedicated to supporting any child in New Zealand whose wellbeing is at significant risk of harm now, or in the future. We also work with young people who may have offended, or are likely to offend. Our belief is that in the right environment, with the right people surrounding and nurturing them, any child can, and should flourish.

Our vision

Our vision is: New Zealand values the wellbeing of tamariki above all else.

Our purpose

Our purpose is: To ensure that all tamariki are in loving whānau and communities where oranga tamariki can be realised.

The Oranga Tamariki way

We're introducing a new way of doing things. A way of looking at the world that guides everything we do:

Our core outcomes

Our core outcomes are:

- All children and young people are in loving families and communities where they can be safe, strong, connected, and able to flourish.
- Improved outcomes for all children, especially tamariki and rangatahi Māori.

POSITION PURPOSE

The Social Work Resource Assistant will provide social work support services to social workers that promote the protection, wellbeing and best management of children and young persons in safe families. The Social Work Resource Assistant will work toward this goal through the delivery of a range of tasks as agreed with the Social Work Supervisor including:

To work with and under the supervision and guidance of social work staff by:

- Providing resource assistance in the management of children and young persons receiving social work services.
- Undertake simple/routine information gathering and recording, including CYRAS data entry and associated reports as required.
- Completing appropriate tasks associated with case plans.
- Fostering cooperative working relationships with internal colleagues and external partners and stakeholders.
- Compliance with all Ministry policy and procedures.
- Managing work priorities, personal workload and stress levels with the support of the supervisor.
- To undertake any other social work resource and administration support activity that falls within the general purpose of the position, as appropriate.

The Social Work Resource Assistant is not a social worker in training, or para-social worker. The position does not undertake social work activities and does not have a case load.

The Social Work Resource Assistants are part of a team of social workers and work proactively in that team to produce effective outcomes.

The Social Work Resource Assistant is an additional resource to support a team of social workers by carrying out those routine social work administration activities that do not require a social worker to complete. As a member of a social work team, the Social Work Resource Assistant will participate in an appropriate induction process and regular supervision.
